29th Annual Quad Cities Riverfront Bicycle Ride RIDE THE RIVER

register now! father's day begins with ride the river

The Route

Pedal the basic route of 20 miles or follow the signs for rides of up to 60 miles. Begin at The Freight House, Davenport, proceed to Leach Park, Bettendorf and cross the Mississippi River to Moline on the Celebration Belle Riverboat. Those crossing by bridge will cross the Arsenal Island Bridge and continue the route to the suggested turn around at The Quarter, returning to Davenport via Arsenal Bridge (open until 3:00) or Centennial Bridge (open until 3:30). Riders can turn around at various spots on the route. All total, you can ride through nine communities plus Arsenal Island and mountain bike on Sylvan Island.

Arsenal Bridge Crossing Option

Take the Davenport path and ride across the Arsenal Bridge. Crossing times are on the registration form. Riders can also ride through Arsenal Island to Moline. Must show photo ID.

Arsenal Island Route

Arsenal Island is open for riders 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Riders must follow route marked for Ride the River and stay on the right side of all roads and trails. Riders must wear helmets on the island. Riders 16 and older must show photo ID at guard stations/gates to enter the island.

Riverboat Crossing Option

At Bettendorf's Leach Park, cross the Mississippi River on the Celebration Belle Riverboat while your bike goes across on a barge. At the Illinois landing, pick up your bike and continue your trip. See registration form for boat crossing times and details.

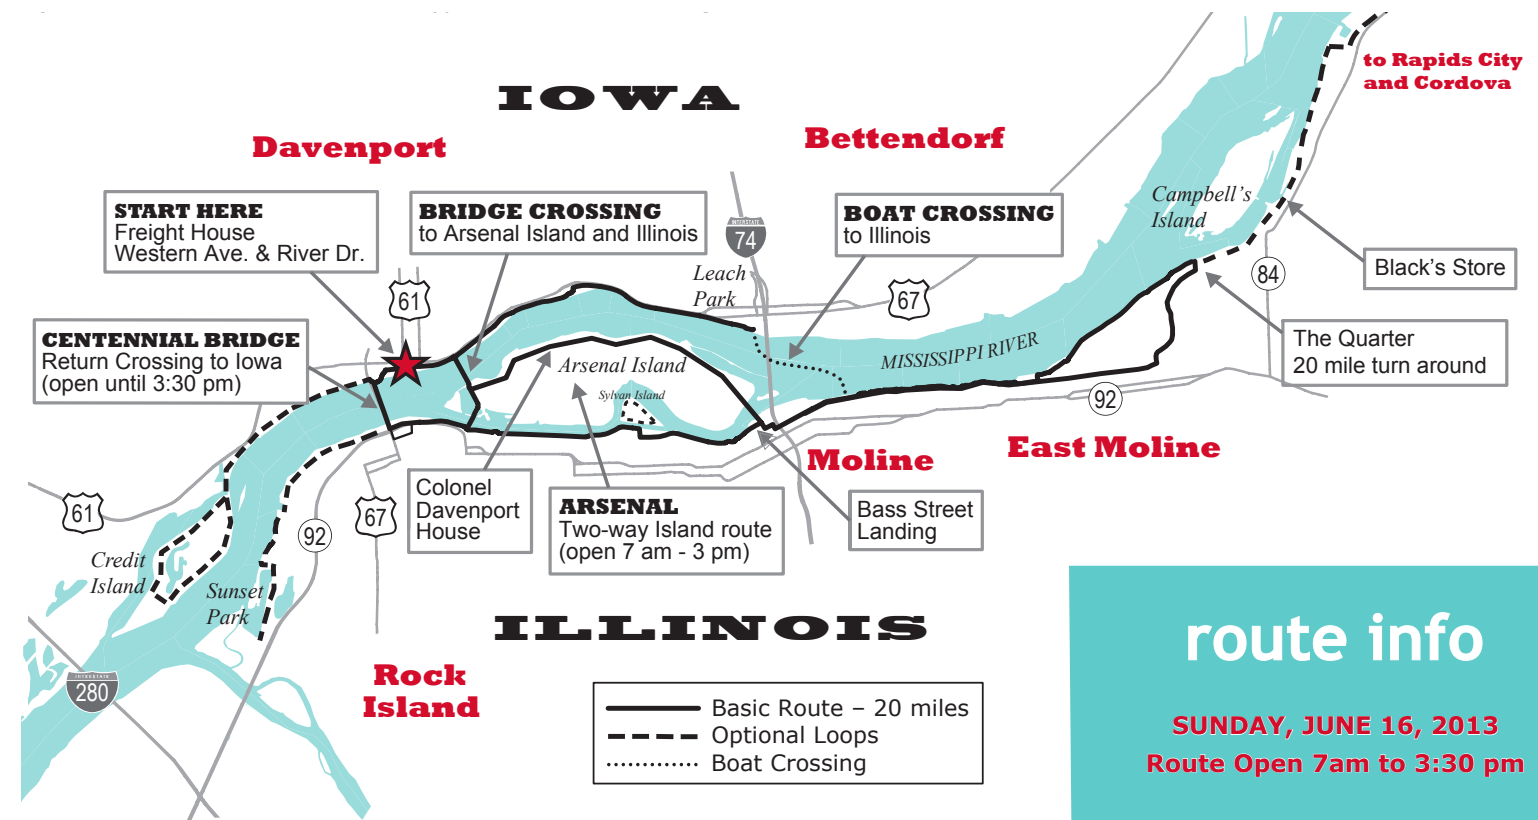

Got a Picnic? We've got the blankets!

Box lunches available from Fresh Deli at the Freight House. Blankets will be set up along the route. The Colonel Davenport House on Arsenal Island will also have blankets and refreshments available.
