30th Annual Quad Cities Riverfront Bicycle Ride RIDETHE RIVER

register now! celebrating 30 years of ride the river

The Route

Pedal the basic route of 20 miles or follow the signs for rides of up to 60 miles. Begin at The Freight House, Davenport, proceed to Leach Park, Bettendorf and cross the Mississippi River to Moline on the Celebration Belle Riverboat. Those crossing by bridge will cross the Arsenal Island Bridge and continue the route to the suggested turn around at The Quarter, returning to Davenport via Arsenal Bridge (open until 3:00) or Centennial Bridge (open until 3:30). Riders can turn around at various spots on the route. All total, you can ride through nine communities plus a loop through Arsenal Island.

Riverboat Crossing Option

At Bettendorf's Leach Park, cross the Mississippi River on the Celebration Belle Riverboat while your bike goes on a Mississippi River Fleeting barge. At the Illinois landing, pick up your bike and continue your trip. See registration form for boat crossing times and details.

Arsenal Bridge Crossing Option

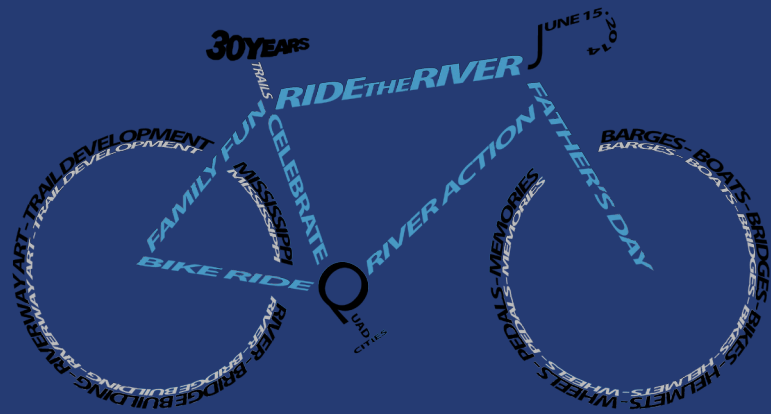

Take the Davenport path and ride across the Arsenal Bridge. Crossing times are on the registration form. Riders can also ride an optional loop through Arsenal Island.

Arsenal Island Loop

Arsenal Island is open for riders 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. All cyclists must enter and exit through the Davenport gate, and riders 16 and older must show photo ID. Follow route marked for Ride the River and stay on the right side of all roads and trails. Riders must wear helmets on the island.

New This Year!

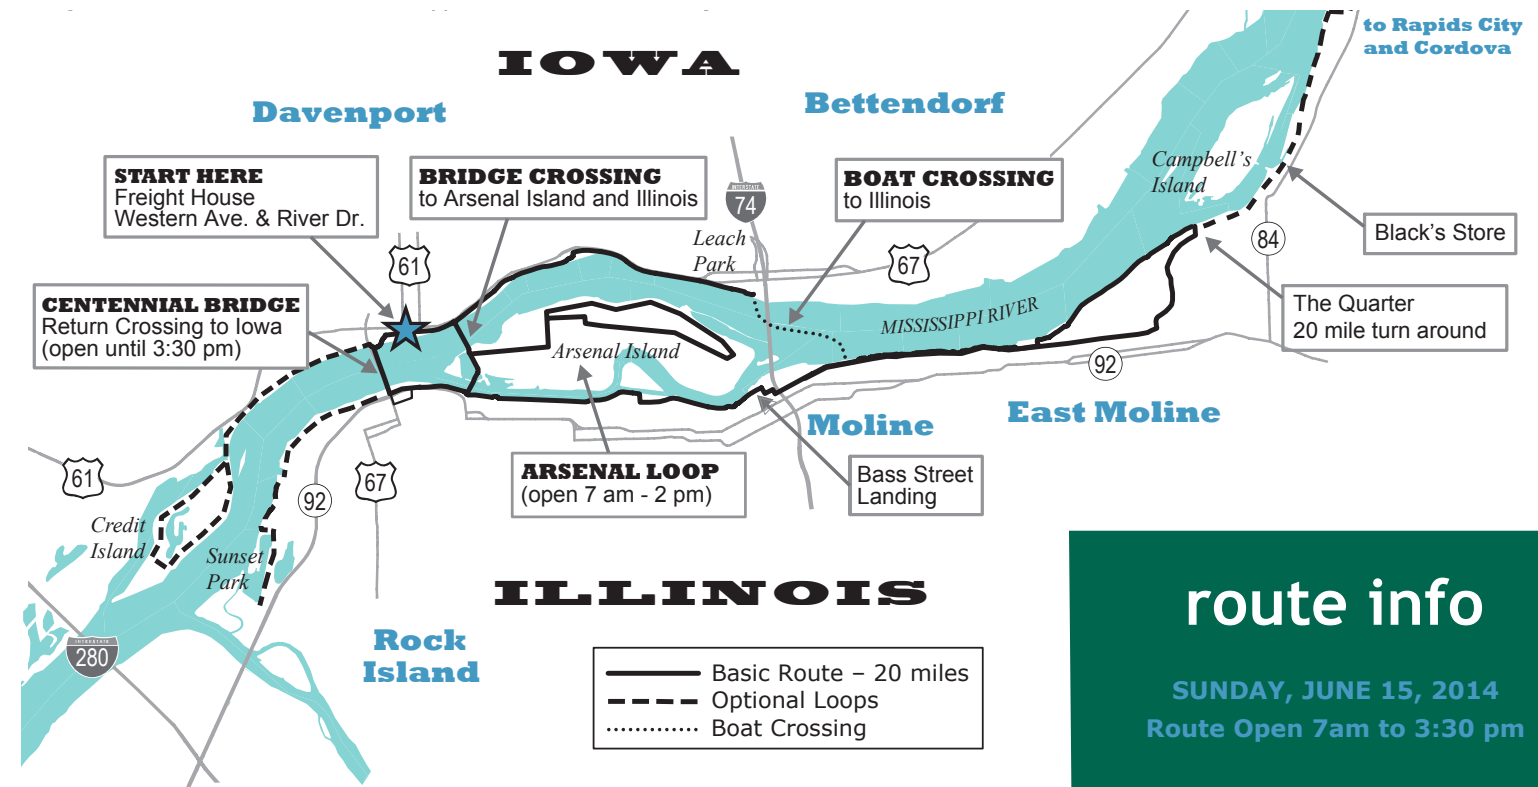

All registered kids ages 8-16 will receive a FREE safety light, donated by the Kiwanis Club of Davenport. All registered kids ages 5-7 will receive a FREE bike bell. And keep a lookout for "30-something" displays along the route, celebrating 30 years of Ride the River.
