32ND ANNUAL QUAD CITIES RIVERFRONT BICYCLE RIDE

RIDE THE RIVER

FATHER'S DAY, JUNE 19, 2016

The Route: Open 7 am to 3:30 pm

Plan your own ride! The basic route is marked on the map, but there are many optional trails and loops for rides of up to 60 miles with lots to see along the way. Begin at the Quad City Times, Davenport, proceed to Leach Park, Bettendorf and cross the Mississippi River to Moline on the Celebration Belle. Those crossing by bridge will cross the Arsenal Island Bridge and continue the route to the suggested turn around, returning to Davenport via Arsenal Bridge (open until 3:00) or Centennial Bridge (open until 3:30). All total, you can trailblaze through nine communities, see the new Riverdale trail, and ride through Arsenal Island.

Riverboat Crossing Option

From Bettendorf, cross the Mississippi on riverboat while your bike goes on a barge. At the Illinois landing, grab your bike and continue your ride. See registration form for boat crossing times.

Arsenal Bridge Crossing Option

From the Davenport path, ride across the Arsenal Bridge. See crossing times on registration form.

Arsenal Island Trail

Arsenal Island is open for riders 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. All cyclists should enter and exit through the Rock Island and Moline gates. Riders 16 and older must show photo ID. No weapons, explosives or pets allowed. Follow route marked for Ride the River and stay on the right side of all roads and trails. Riders must wear helmets on the island.

FUN & FREE EXTRAS!

- Riverdale Trail! This new portion of the riverfront trail is open from Bettendorf to Riverdale. More details inside.
- Pop Up Parks! Stop in Riverdale and again in Moline at the Rowing Club to enjoy these parks.
- Free Bell! The first 500 kids registered receive a free bike bell, donated by the Noon Kiwanis Club of Davenport who will also be on hand at registration to install the bells.
- Free QC Times Drawing! Win a 1-year subscription to the Quad City Times. Entry form inside.
