RIDE THE RIVER ISLAND ADVENTURE

FATHER'S DAY, JUNE 17, 2018 | HEADQUARTERS: LE CLAIRE PARK

Join us for the 34th annual Quad Cities riverfront bicycle ride!

Ride the River is a bi-state tour of the Quad Cities along riverfront bike trails. Cross the Mississippi River on the Celebration Belle Riverboat from Iowa to Illinois or ride across the historic Arsenal Bridge. Come join the fun with the whole family for this Father's Day tradition!

The Route: Open 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Plan your ride using the map and mileage below. Trails, islands, and loops can be combined for rides of over 40 miles in 5 communities with lots to see along the way. Begin at LeClaire Park, Davenport, proceed along the route to one of the Mississippi River crossings.

Riverboat Crossing Option | 9:30 a.m. only

From Bettendorf, cross the Mississippi on a riverboat while your bike goes on a barge. At the Illinois landing, grab your bike and continue your ride. Select Boat option on registration form.

Arsenal Bridge Crossing Option | Any Time

From the Davenport path, ride across the Arsenal Bridge to Arsenal Island or cross over to Rock Island. Select Bridge option on registration form.

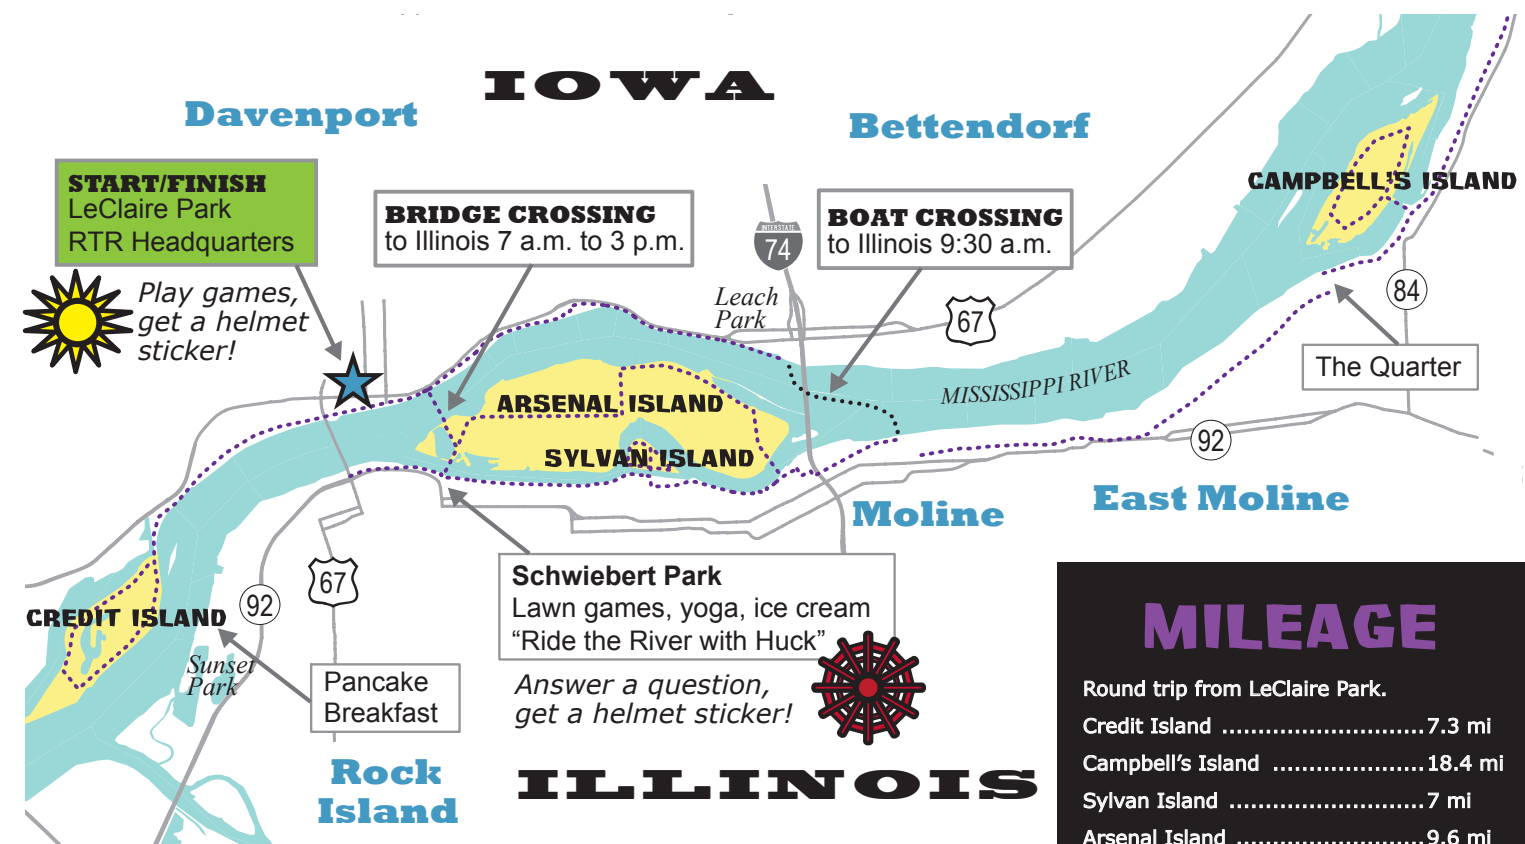

Free Backpacks!

The first 350 kids registered receive a free string backpack, donated by Noon Kiwanis Club of Davenport.

Bike Helmets

Helmets are mandatory for riders under 18 and all riders on Arsenal Island. They are strongly recommended for all riders. Registered riders can purchase Bell helmets at the event: youth $5; adult $10. Made possible by support from the QC Bicycle Club.

MILEAGE

Round trip from LeClaire Park.
